

New Premises

August 2003

Temprotech Ltd. have recently moved into a new premises on the newly developed Glenmore Business Park in Andover, Hampshire, UK.

Temprotech founders, Paul Davies (top left) and Russell Deere (middle left) are delighted that the new office provides “a permanent home for our sales, marketing and administrative operations and the light storage area supplements our principal stockholding facilities and enables us to meet many of our customers’ stop-gap requirements from our ‘emergency’ stockholding.”
